
H.S. WORLD HISTORY SYLLABUS 2018/19

Michele Wilson * 813-482-8099 * thewilsonfamily2001@mac.com

Course Objectives

We will be using Notgrass' Exploring World History as our core curriculum. This course is a survey of world history from Creation to the 21st Century. "This course is a survey of world history from Creation to the 21st Century. The course discusses civilizations from around the world. A special emphasis is placed on key events, key ideas, key persons, and everyday life in various time periods of world history. The student [will be introduced to] a significant number of original documents and speeches while studying the narrative of lessons." (Parent Guide)

Required Text

Exploring World History Curriculum Package, Ray Notgrass

*Optional - Student Review Pack

Course Requirements

1. Attendance and participation: Attendance in class is required and has an effect on a student's grade. See below for late policy. Also, participation in class discussion and group work is 10% of your student's grade.
2. Absences/Late Work: Absences that are communicated to, and approved by, me as excused will allow your student to submit work upon his/her return to school. Work turned in after the due date will result in a 10 percentage point deduction, per week late (unless student has an excused absence).
3. Academic Integrity: Students will be required to complete their own work, without relying on significant outside assistance - unless it is for an approved group project. Students will also be required to properly cite sources for any material/video/media they use in papers, projects, homework, etc.

Homework/Grading

Homework will be provided each week through EngradePro.com.

Attendance/Participation: 10% Projects/Assign.: 40% Quiz/Test: 50%

Grading Scale - Standard (90 - 100 A / 0 - 59 F)

BONUS: See next page for Full Credit World History, English AND Bible options.

This course can be supplemented with a literature package that, when used in conjunction with your student completing all of the assignments in the textbook (not just the history assignments), will allow your student to earn a full credit, each, of World History, English and Bible.

In order to use this as a complete curriculum option, you would need to purchase the Literature bundle and complete follow the instructions to complete all required work. See <https://history.notgrass.com> for more information.
